

Compassionate community care for every need.

Huntington Hospital offers care in a variety of settings, including urgent and emergent care, to ensure patients receive the right care, in the right place, at the right time.

Primary care →

Your primary care doctor provides preventive and principal day-to-day medical care:

Examples

Routine exams, annual physicals, ongoing care for non-emergent conditions, and overall wellness services.

Care resource

Patients may request a referral to a primary care physician on staff at Huntington Hospital by calling (800) 903-9233.

Urgent care →

Urgent care is for non-emergency medical conditions:

Examples

Broken bones, sprains and strains, cuts, scrapes and rashes, fevers, vomiting and/or diarrhea.

Care resource

For patients whose condition is not life-threatening but needs to be handled promptly, Pasadena Community Urgent Care Center (PCUC) offers outpatient care on a walk-in basis without an appointment. To reach PCUC — located at 3160 E. Del Mar Blvd. in Pasadena — please call (626) 270-2400. You may also visit www.pasadenaurgentcare.com to learn more.

Emergency care →

The emergency room is for emergency medical conditions:

Examples

Suspected heart attack or stroke, sudden loss of consciousness, major burns, bleeding that will not stop, severe unexplained pain. When in doubt, always call 911.

Care resource

Our emergency department offers care for patients with severe or life-threatening medical problems or injuries requiring swift treatment. Care is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, year-round. To reach the emergency department, located at 100 W. California Blvd. in Pasadena, please call (626) 397-5112.

Trauma care

Trauma care is for life-threatening injuries:

Examples

Injuries sustained during an accident, fall or attack. Call 911.

Care resource

Our trauma center provides care around the clock and throughout the year. Trauma team members provide high-quality response when every second counts. Care may begin even before patients arrive at the trauma center, thanks to mobile intensive care nurses in our Elsa and Tom Grether Police and Medical Services Workroom, who provide medical input to paramedics en route. To reach the trauma center, located at 100 W. California Blvd. in Pasadena, please call (626) 397-5112.
