

Giving back.

$161.5 million

in community benefits provided in 2022.

Above and beyond health care services.

Hospital discharge support.

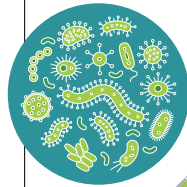

802 people received transportation assistance in the form of bus tokens and cab fares.

357 new moms received lactation support post-discharge.

78 patients received free or discounted prescription medications.

Beyond our walls.

1,681 community members received complimentary flu shots.

1,232 people received free health screenings and counseling.

414 patients participated in cancer support groups.

Support for older adults.

2,820 callers benefited from Senior Care Network's Resource Center support and referrals.

549 older community members participated in a virtual educational lecture series.

507 seniors received help to continue living safely in their homes.

Health education and training programs.

1,095 residents, interns and nursing students received education and training.

2,572 community members received free Fentanyl and Narcan education.

251 people attended a 6-week diabetes education series.

